BART Data August 2016 – May 2017

- There were 214 BART reports submitted (204 Columbus, 5 Wooster, 4 Off-Campus, 2 Marion)

- The most common types of BART reports were related to Race/Ethnicity (96, 44.9%), Gender Identity (59, 27.6%), and Sexual Orientation (45, 21%).

- The majority of BART reports were in the form of Written Harassment (66, 30.8%) and Verbal Harassment (65, 30.6%)

- Of the 214 BART reports submitted, 3.3% of respondents identified as faculty, 31% staff, 68% undergraduate students and 11.6% graduate students.

- How did you hear about BART?
  - 14.9% - Open Doors
  - 59% - Staff/Faculty Member
  - 3.3% - University Publication
  - 15.8% - Fellow Student
  - 46.5% - Program Training
  - 9.8% - Other
  - 6% - Class
BART Reports: Nature of Bias

BART Reports: Type of Incident

BART Reports: Location of Incident

Note: Categories are self-reported and the online process allows for multiple responses