    - 2. Add OIA
- 5. Student Life Updates
  - Dr. J
    - i. Asking about response to Fall Break timing, workload, etc?
    - ii. Noel very helpful as a mental break. Having with huge home football game made it difficult
    - iii. Mckinzie a host at the football game, so could not go home.Suggest to line up with away game or different game
    - iv. Daniele timing of it good with opportunity to take trips
    - v. Garrett spacing and placement in semester is perfect around other days off and breaks during semester. Some professors expressed concern of how they setup their lectures and course loads

- vi. Michelle for Wednesday/Friday classes missing entire week. For classes, had assignments packed into the 3 days prior to break which was a lot
- vii. Roger helpful in catching up and preparing for the rest of the semester. Thursday/Friday made sense to take off because of Mondays already taken away throughout the semester
- viii. Dr. Mull not all professional schools got breaks
- ix. Beth as faculty member, helpful to have break at end of session.Met with STEP cohort and a variety of ways they used their break.
- x. Mckinzie if on a home game have it on a night game because of chaos of traffic if earlier game.

• Student Philanthropy

- i. Focus on student philanthropy led by Felix Alonso. In collaboration with Advancement Office with Student Life as the lead. Meetings and focus groups occurring to look at student philanthropy beyond Buckeyethon in large efforts. How to engage students earlier on in careers and throughout it.
- Chancellor commissioned report on safe campus climates
  - i. Looked across university in building five directives for all universities coming out tomorrow. President Drake along with two others were asked to spearhead support of this effort. The hope is that everyone will do 100% of what will be asked. Focus on education, training, and development of students.

- Civic Engagement Banquet 2nd one goal to focus attention on work being done around civic engagement of students, faculty, staff, and community partners. Mostly funds itself through sponsorship. Call for nominations of individuals/groups for various categories and group of reviewers (alumni, faculty, staff, students) select winners.
- University Foundation Celebration of Excellence donors who have given at particular levels to the university. Collaboration with advancement brought about students engaging with donors at the events - very positive experience.
- STEP program though construction in residential district, it's about the programming that will support the retention/graduation of students. STEP is the driver, and the spaces are facilitators to ensure this can be accomplished.
