Reconciliation/Carry Forward Procedures

Additional Section:

Section C. Redistribution of Student Activity Reconciliation and Carry Forward Dollars

- a. If a minimum amount of $50,000 of Student Activity Fee (SAF) funds are available via carry forward and or reconciliation, CSA has the ability to follow the outlined reallocation process.
  - i. Reconciliation is defined as Student Activity Fee (SAF) dollars that are added to the SAF cash balance from the university based on misestimations of enrollment or any other miscalculation.

- ii. Carry Forward is defined as any SAF dollars that went unused in previous years, and are collected back by CSA with the intent of redistribution.
- b. The timeline of reallocation is as follows:
  - i. By the third full council meeting of the academic year, CSA will determine if there is a need for reallocation, based on a majority full council affirmative vote.
  - ii. In the event of an affirmative decision, CSA will notify appropriate parties of the date of application deadline and the total amount of funds to be allocated.
  - iii. The CSA Allocations Committee will review applications, with a decision made as soon as possible following the closing of the application, and final approval of awarded dollars will be made by the full council of CSA.
- c. The Allocations Committee has authoritative power over the application, and all application requirements, evaluation priorities, etc, with any changes being approved by the full council.
- d. Fundable expenses must comply with all Ohio State University purchasing policies.
